

Mestre Daniel Tinto 2019

This is a blend of 2 talhas each with a capacity around 1,000 litres good for a final production of 2,000 bottles from the 2019 vintage. This is a wine you must have tasted, primal red wine from Alentejo, brimming with character. Vinification on amphora results in much lighter wine than what the modern method produces. In the hot. Alentejo, that's nice.
